Cancellations/No Shows

Since we regard time as a precious gift from God and our sessions with you as a joint commitment to our work; No Shows or appointments cancelled with less than 24-hour notice will be charged 100% of the fee of session.

Insurance

Kelly-Johnston Counseling, PLLC does not participate in insurance plans or insurance panels. We believe that remaining outside of this system will help us to safeguard your privacy, enable us to focus more solely on providing the best services we can, and keep our administrative expenses down.

Self-Pay

We accept cash, checks, and credit cards at the time of service. PayPal for online payments for tele-video sessions. All tele-video sessions must be paid in advance of session.

Insurance Self-Claim

Even though we do not directly participate in insurance plans, some patients elect to submit their own claims to their health insurance company for our services as an "out-of-network" provider. We can provide limited assistance in this process. We can provide a statement (sometimes called a "Superbill") that lists all of the information your insurance company would need to process a claim. You can then mail this statement to the claims department of your insurance company for processing. Please note that these statements become available after the completion of services. Regardless of whether your insurance company will reimburse you, the fees are still your responsibility and are due at the time of service.
